3. The exclusive privilege above described will be disposed of to the highest bidder, but the sale is subject to the confirmation of the Deputy Commissioner, who reserves to himself the right to accept or reject any bid without assigning any reason therefor.

4. Parties intending to bid must attend either in person or by duly accredited agents, and no person will be permitted to bid either on his own behalf or on account of any one else, unless he deposits a sum of Rs. 200 which, in case of the unsuccessful bidders, will be returned at the close of sale.

5. Bidders should state at the time of sale whether they bid on their own behalf or others. The successful bidder should work up the lease himself, and if he wish to transfer it to others, he should obtain the sanction of the Deputy Commissioner, who shall have power to insist upon payment of a premium for granting the same.

6. The successful bidder shall, within three days after the confirmation of the sale is intimated to him, credit into the Government Treasury of the taluk concerned, one-half of the total rental, including the deposit already made plus local cess at one anna per rupee.

7. Re-sales effected under the above para will be at the risk of the defaulting bidder who will forfeit all gain, and in the event of a loss by the re-sale, shall make good the deficiency between the total amount payable by him for the whole period under the terms of the original sale and the total amount payable by the successful bidder at the re-sale. If the deficit be not paid it will be recovered as a revenue demand.

8. The lessee shall sign an agreement binding himself to observe the conditions below, and it should be executed within three days from the date on which the confirmation of the sale may be intimated to him; in default, the sum already paid will be forfeited and the right re-sold.

9. The balance of the lease amount and the local cess thereon shall be paid in full in two khists in advance on the dates mentioned below, and sufficient security must be furnished for the payment of the same. Failing to remit any of the khists on the due date, the lessee will forfeit the sum already credited and also his claim to the produce, and the balance will be recovered as a revenue demand.

1st Khist, 1st July 1901. | 2nd Khist, 1st November 1901.
